Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee and saw two brothers casting their nets.

He called, "Peter, Andrew, come and follow me."

A little farther on, Jesus saw two more brothers mending their nets.

He called, "James, John, come and follow me."

Jesus still calls people by name. Today, Jesus looks upon each one of us with love, and says "Come and follow me." Let us each speak the name by which God knows us. (Each person speaks their own first name aloud.) Jesus calls us by name. Come, let us worship God!

Song of Praise: "The Lord's Prayer"

Opening Prayer

Opening Hymn: # 399 "Jesus Calls Us"

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession:

Gracious and loving God, you call us to follow you, yet we cling to our own ways instead. Our "nets" entangle us. We become distracted by the demands of life and hold too tightly to our own plans. We listen to others' voices before we listen to yours. We hear you call us yet we hesitate to answer. Forgive us for our tight grip, for following what we desire instead of your will, and for clinging to fear instead of following in faith. By your grace, deepen our trust and our courage. May we follow you eagerly as you fill us with joy.
