Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

Lord, your unfailing love surrounds those who trust in you! Rejoice in the Lord, and be glad, you who are upright in heart!

Let all the faithful pray to you; you are our hiding place. Rejoice in the Lord, and be glad, you who are upright in heart!

We worship you now, forgiven and loved.

May you be glorified through our worship together. Amen.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession:

Loving God, we are so often more confident in ourselves than we are in your strength. Forgive us where we depend on ourselves and our own ways, doubting your guidance and your daily provision. We lack the strength to do this alone and are in need of your grace. Thank you that you meet us with compassion instead of condemnation. Forgive us for pride which keeps us from asking for help, for fear when we admit our weakness, and for our silence in our relationship with you. Like Peter, we long to be restored and thank you for meeting us where we are at with forgiveness. We trust in your steadfast love and ask for a new beginning. We pray in your holy name, together.
