Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

The Apostle Paul writes, "I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in every and any situation."

We worship in God's presence, debating, "Do we have enough?"

Loving God, if I open my hands and release what is mine, will you provide for me again?

Show us your provision. We are thankful you are here with us. Bring us peace and joy through our worship of you, and grant us grace and mercy, as we grow. Amen. (Inspired by Philippians 4:10-13)

Song of Praise: "God of Wonders"

Opening Prayer

Opening Hymn: # 392 "Come Ye Thankful People Come"

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We pray for your forgiveness today, Oh God, for where we do not give to you or serve those in need around us. We worry we will not have enough. We worry our generosity leads to impoverished lives. We worry we will run out of what we need, physically, spiritually, and emotionally. Increase our gratitude, Oh God, and as our joy increases in Jesus Christ, may our generosity grow. Open our hands and hearts to give, as we receive.

Time of Silence for Personal Confession
